List of GEC Courses offered by the College of Education and Human Ecology
As approved for ASC GEC Categories

Category 1: Skills
   Second writing course: HDFS 367: American Family Issues
   Foreign Language (not required for EHE majors, but for many other university majors):
   - EDU T&L 101: American Sign Language I
   - EDU T&L 102: American Sign Language II
   - EDU T&L 113: American Sign Language III
   - EDU T&L 114: American Sign Language IV

Category 2: Breadth
   Natural science, biological science course: HUMN NTR 210: The Science of Human Nutrition
   Social Science, individuals and groups course:
   - CS FSNRTS 372: Appearance, Dress, and Cultural Diversity
   - EDU P&L 411: Body/Mind Goes to School
   - EDU T&L 559: Urban Teaching and Learning*
   - HDFS 360: Family Development
   - HDFS 361: Introduction to Child Development
   - HDFS 364: Life Span Human Development
   Social Science, organizations and politics: CS CFMFNS 243: Consumer Problems
   Social Science, human, natural, and economic resources: CON SCI 340: The Multicultural Consumer

Category 3: Historical Study
   EDU PAES 210: History of Sport, Physical Culture and the Body in Nineteenth Century America
   EDU PAES 211: History of Sport, Physical Culture and the Body in Twentieth Century America

Category 4: Diversity
   Social Diversity in the United States:
   - EDU T&L 559: Urban Teaching and Learning*
   - EDU P&L 551: An Historical Account of the Education of Black Folk in the US, Part I:
     1700-1950 (not currently being offered)
   - EDU P&L 552: An Historical Account of the Education of Black Folk in the US, Part II:
     1950-Present (not currently being offered)

Category 5: Issues of the Contemporary World
(for ASC BA majors and within EHE, for Pre-Health Science, Humn Ntr majors Only)
   - HDFS 597.01: International Family Issues, Middle East (not currently being offered)
   - HDFS 597.02: International Family Issues, Sub-Saharan Africa (not currently being offered)

*Counts for more than one GEC category