

CLASSROOM: 142 TEACHING TEAM: Cindy Egelhoff & Madison Page DATE: 6/30/25 – 7/11/2025

Physical Development and Wellness

- Dancing with scarves
- What plants can be used to heal or soothe our bodies?
- Building with Legos

Approaches to Learning

- Working with clay to create sculptures
- How many worms can the birds eat sensory trays.
- They All Saw a Cat by Brendan Wenzel

Social and Emotional Development

- Color Monster Story table...all about feelings
- Looking at the world through a bug's lens (bug goggles)
- Propagating plants from our spider plant, aloe and Athos.

Language and Literacy

- Stick and Stone by Beth Ferry
- The Tiny Seed By Eric Carle
- Telling stories using a beginning middle and end.

Children's Interests
Summer Fun/Nature
Exploration

Creative Development

- Transforming rocks with paint and loose parts
- Color matching with nature. How can we recreate colors?
- Collaging

Science

- Mining for gems and rocks in the sensory table
- Nature Potions
- Sand Slime

Cognitive Development

- Tic Tac Toe Boards
- Mandala art with sand and nature
- Building nature objects out of magnetiles

Mathematics

- Identifying final number of a group
- Mixing colors to create and name our own colors
- Creating with tangrams

Social Studies

- Exploring nature textures around the world.
- What are native gardens?
- What are Ohio's most popular native plants?

A. Sophie Rogers School for Early Learning

Teacher Prep/Materials

Mini pots

Potting soil

Sand

Books

Rocks

Ohio Plants

Mandala pictures

Shells

Sticks

Flowers

Community Happenings

Family Storytime 4:45
– 5:15

