

CLASSROOM: 142 TEACHING TEAM: Maria Vittoria Zambelli & Cindy Molnar DATE: 4/22/24 – 5/3/2024

Physical Development and Wellness

Catching bubbles on the playground.
Scavenger hunt for bugs on the playground.
Using fine motor tools such as hole punches, scissors and glue bottles.

Approaches to Learning

- Taking instruments outside and having a parade.
- Making art inside and outside with nature loose parts.
- What techniques did Eric Carle use to illustrate his books?

Social and Emotional Development

- Helping each other get in and out of dress up clothes.
- Life cycle of caterpillar and frogs and making our own models

Language and Literacy

- I am a tiger by Karl Newson
- Dual teacher read a louds in character voices.
- We are going on a bear hunt story table with props

Children's Interests
Reading Books/Life
Cycles/Science/Music

Creative Development

- Blow painting with straws and watercolors
- Creating a music portfolio by listening to different genres and using different materials

Science

- What is photosynthesis and why is it so important?
- Creating sun tea and tasting it.
- STEAM visit from the Byrd Polar and Climate Research Center

Cognitive Development

- Painting Tissue paper like Eric Carle and collaging.
- Blooming paper flowers.
- Growing paper worms in water.

Mathematics

- Creating Catapults and measuring distances of objects ejected.
- Explore clocks and concepts of time
- Creating hypothesis on why objects sink or float

Social Studies

- Place all kinderbounds schools on our map.
- Exploring genres of music from the world

Teacher Prep/Materials

Scavenger hunts with eggs and pictures
inside and out

Catapults

Planting
carrots/cucumbers

It's Mine by Eric Carle

Tissue Paper

Paints

Bubble wrap

Frog Life Cycle

Community Happenings

4/23/24 pop-up STEAM visit from the Byrd Polar and Climate Research Center

Family Storytime 4/23/24
4:45 – 5:15

ASR Closed Thursday and Friday for PD Days

