- ◆ President Smith provided an overview of the conference.

The Study of Teacher Education Programs: Preliminary Overview:

Chair: Dean David Monk (Penn State University)
Presenter: Dr. Martin Orland, Director of the Center for Behavioral & Social Sciences, National Academy of Science. Dr. Orland provided an overview of the workings of the National Academy of Sciences emphasizing the rigor and independence of the consensus committee work with a special focus on the planned study of teacher education. (slides will be available on the CADREI website)

The Future of HEA, IDEA, and OSEP Research Division

Chair: Dean Richard Schwab University of Connecticut
Presenter: Dr. Jane West, Washington Partners, LLC (Education and Public Policy). Dr. West provided an overview of the reauthorization of the Higher Education Act and IDEA and their implications for educational policy. Some of the key issues of IDEA to special education teacher education include:

- ◆ Highly qualified teachers in special education with content expertise;
- ◆ Becoming a special education via testing only
- ◆ definition of learning disabilities;
- ◆ multi year IEP;
- ◆ pre-referral program/early intervention;
- ◆ research moved to IES out of Office of Special Education Programs ($78M) with new center on educational research

Some of the key issues related to the Higher Education Act for universities include:

- ◆ Access – does student aid give universities the entitlement to raise tuition
- ◆ Affordability – what is the relationship between cost to provide education and tuition costs; state cutbacks
- ◆ Accountability – NCLB goes to college? Rate of graduation, rate of achieving certifications and licenses, (see ACE website for further information about objections from higher education community); learning outcomes associated with college graduation

October 11: Afternoon Program

October 12, 2004

Welcomes:

- ◆ Dean Catherine Emihovich: University of Florida
- ◆ Dean Bob Lemmons: Florida A&M University

Business Meeting: Dean Joan Smith

Secretary's report:

- ◆ Minutes of February meeting were accepted without revision
- ◆ Elections: The Executive Committee suggests the following slate of candidates for openings on the Executive Committee:
  - Deans Vinetta Jones & Ivory Toldson for HBCU member at large
  - Deans George Hynd & Diane Ashby for member at large

- ◆ No additional nominations were given from the floor. A request for additional nominations will be sent via email.

Treasurer's report:

- ◆ Balance is $185,554

Task Force Reports

- ◆ Evidentiary Task Force: Suggestions were received from the membership as final edits to the document. A key point is that we must advertise that we are adopting these for our own institutions; this is what makes it newsworthy; we have created order to the knowledge base of teacher education

New Business:

- ◆ Dean Bill Graves reported on the AACTE presidential search. He expects a new president to be named prior to the February meeting.
- ◆ Further, Dean Graves urged the membership to get involved with the State Chapter meetings.
- ◆ Dean Vinetta Jones informed the membership of the opportunity to buy CDs from the AERA re: all journals to 2000
- ◆ Further, Dean Jones reported on the meeting with representatives from the US News and World Report rankings program and indicated that AERA or AACTE might volunteer to be advisory to the rankings.
- ◆ Finally, Dean Jones reminded the membership that Howard University, in collaboration with AACTE, will host a special event commemorating Brown at 50.
